Citi Investment Banking/ Global Markets Graduate Opportunity – Sydney

Citi is one of the largest financial services companies in the world with around 120 million customers in more than 100 countries. As a leading full-service investment bank in Australia and globally, Citi advises industry leaders, governments and institutional investors on the best way to realise their strategic objectives. We provide strategic advice on the world's most significant deals, and provide the broadest possible market access to thousands of issuer and investor clients.

Citi is currently accepting applications for both our Global Markets and Investment Banking Graduate programs in our Sydney office. We encourage applications from all areas, a financial background is not necessary but you do need to possess solid quantitative and analytical abilities, and be able to work under pressure on multiple tasks. To be eligible you must be an Australian citizen or permanent resident in your final year of study at university. Successful applicants will join our team as a graduate in early 2011.

How to Apply

Visit www.oncampus.citi.com to read more about our Graduate programs and to apply for these opportunities in our Sydney office. Applications will only be accepted online via our website and must include a cover letter, transcript and CV.

Applications will close midnight, 19th March 2010.

Why join Citi?

World class training and development - We believe that employee development is the springboard to your future success. As a Citi employee, you will have access to some of the best training programs offered by any financial services institution in the world.

Global exposure – Citi Australia is a springboard to our global network and we are the third highest exporter of our talent to the rest of the world. Our presence in over 100 countries means that we can offer a range of career possibilities across different businesses and locations.

Diversity - Citi is one of the most diverse organisations in the world and we believe that diversity is a strategy for success. We value a work environment where diversity is embraced, where employees are promoted on their merits and where people treat each other with mutual respect and dignity.
